

GETTING STARTED AT UB
MA Theatre & Performance
Department of Theatre & Dance

Congratulations and welcome to UB. As soon as you are enrolled for classes, you will receive information from the Graduate School regarding the necessary information to access your UBit username, email account, and password. You will also receive information about how to obtain a parking pass, student ID, and other important information.

For your reference, here is a list of links to get you started.

Student ID: To access the resources at UB (such as the library, campus cash, athletic facilities, etc.) you will need a Student UD Card. This can be obtained with your UBit username and password. Register here: <http://www.myubcard.com/ubcard/getting-started>.

Parking: You will need to register for a parking pass online using your UBit username and password. If you register early enough you may have the parking pass mailed to you. Otherwise, you can pick it up in the Student Union. Registration and information is available here: <http://www.ub-parking.buffalo.edu/permits.php>.

Maps: Most of your departmental classes will be held in Alumni Arena and the Center for the Arts. Other classes will be held across campus. A listing of buildings may be found here: <http://www.buffalo.edu/buildings/>. Maps of North and South campus may be found here: <http://www.buffalo.edu/buildings/pdf-page.html>.

Course Resources: All textbooks are available in the UB North Campus Bookstore (<http://www.bkstr.com/webapp/wcs/stores/servlet/StoreCatalogDisplay?catalogId=10001&langId=-1&demoKey=d&storeId=10542>) and may also be found on reserve in Capen Library Course Reserves on the First Floor.

Many courses have course sites available on UBLearns. You may access UBLearns here for a complete list of your online courses: <https://ublearns.buffalo.edu/>.
